Inspection Published Comment:
 Onsite visit is in reference to an illness complaint. While onsite a routine inspection was conducted.

Complainant concerned they became ill after consuming a meal at the establishment.

Establishment was not aware of the complaint. Per the manager there have not been any losses of water or power around the time of the complaint. All employees read and sign an employee health reporting agreement at time of hire. Process is done while doing online onboarding. Manager stated that there have not been any employee reports of illness on or around the time of the complaint visit.

Complaint is closed and unverifiable.

No further onsite action necessary.
