Inspection Published Comment:

This onsite visit was conducted as a routine inspection. No cooking occurs at this facility. All cooking is conducted at the Iowa Memorial Union kitchen, and food is transported to this location in hot and cold-holding cases. Only hot and cold holding occur at this facility. The inspection was conducted with the facility fully set up for demonstration; no food preparation or service was occurring at the time of inspection.

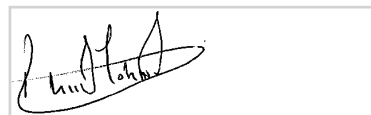

Discussion with Management: Proper date marking of opened commercial containers was discussed with management, including the requirement to mark applicable refrigerated foods with the date the original container is opened.
